WHISTLE-BLOWER POLICY

1. PREAMBLE

The Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") mandates every listed company and such other class of companies, as may be prescribed, to establish a mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns in such manner as may be prescribed.

On March 25, 2015, Caspian Impact Investments Private Limited (the "Company") has adopted a Code of Conduct/Ethics for Directors and Employees (the "Code"), which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Company, its directors and employees. Any actual or potential violation of the Code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, is a matter of serious concern for the Company.

3. Applicability

The Company believes in conducting its affairs in a fair and transparent manner, adopting the highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behavior, in consonance with the Code. Any violation of the Code is a matter of serious concern for the Company.

The Directors and Employees have a role and responsibility in reporting any such violations. This Policy attempts to provide a secure environment in which the Employees and the Directors may report unethical, unlawful or improper practices, acts or activities with no adverse action taken against any such individuals who report such practices in good faith. This policy applies to the Directors and Employees of the Company including Directors and Employees of the Investment Advisor as well as any other advisors/consultants appointed by the Company.

4. Guiding Principles

To ensure that this Policy is adhered to, and to assure that the concern will be acted upon seriously, the Company will:

- Ensure that the Whistle Blower and/or the person processing the Protected Disclosure is not victimized for doing so;
- Treat victimization as a serious matter including initiating disciplinary action on such person/(s) victimizing whistle blower/s;
- Ensure complete confidentiality.
- Not attempt to conceal evidence of the Protected Disclosure;
- Take disciplinary action, if any one destroys or conceals evidence of the Protected Disclosure made/to be made;
- Provide an opportunity of being heard to the persons involved especially to the Subject;

5. Coverage of the Policy

The Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place/ suspected to take place involving

- An abuse of authority
- Breach of the Code of Conduct/Ethics Policy or Rules
- Negligence causing substantial and specific danger to public health and safety
- Manipulation of Company's data or records
- Financial irregularities, including fraud, or suspected fraud
- Gross waste of or misuse or misappropriation of the Company's funds
- Criminal offence
- Pilferation of confidential/propriety information
- Deliberate violation of law/regulation
- A violation of the Company's rules and regulations resulting in loss or damage to the Company's assets or reputation,
- Misuse or misappropriation of the Company's assets
- Any other unethical, biased, favoured, imprudent event

The Policy should not be used in place of the Company's grievance procedures or be a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.

6. Roles, Rights and Responsibilities of Whistle-Blowers

- Whistle-Blower provides initial information based on a reasonable belief that an Alleged Wrongful Conduct has occurred. The motivation of the Whistle-Blower is irrelevant to the consideration of the validity of the allegations. However, the intentional filing of a false report, whether orally or in writing is itself considered an improper activity and action may be taken in such a case against the Whistle-Blower.
- Whistle-Blower shall refrain from obtaining evidence for which he/she does not have a right of access. Such improper access may itself be considered Wrongful Conduct.
- The Whistle-Blower shall share all known information regarding the allegation.
- Anonymous Whistle-Blowers must provide sufficient corroborating evidence to justify the commencement of an investigation. Because investigators are unable to interview anonymous whistleblowers, it may be more difficult to evaluate the credibility of the allegations and, therefore, less likely to cause an investigation to be initiated.
- Whistle-Blowers are "reporting parties," not investigators. They are not to act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by the investigating authority.
- The identity of the Whistle-Blower will not be disclosed except where required under the law or for the purpose of the investigation. However, in the event the Whistle-Blower voluntarily discloses his or her identity, there will no longer be an obligation to conceal his/her identity.
- A Whistle-Blower's right to protection from retaliation does not extend to immunity for any complicity in the matters that are the subject of the allegations or an ensuing investigation or any other misconduct or wrongdoing.
- Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false allegations made by a Whistle-Blower knowing them to be false or made with a mala fide intention. An Employee who knowingly makes repeated frivolous and/or false allegations of unethical & improper practices or Alleged Wrongful Conduct to the WBIC shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's rules, policies and procedures.

7. Rights of the Subject

- Subjects have the right to be heard and the Committee must give adequate time and opportunity for the Subject to communicate his/her say on the matter
